

"We must begin to create a revolutionary, multiracial women's movement that seriously addresses the main issues affecting poor and working-class women."

- Angela Y. Davis

"You have to act as if it were possible to radically transform the world.

And you have to do it all the time."

- Angela Davis

An abstract, textured artwork featuring organic, swirling shapes in shades of brown, teal, and blue. A central figure is a hand holding a glowing, teal-colored orb. The background is dark and textured, with some white geometric lines on the right side.

“Sometimes we have to do the work even though we don't yet see a glimmer on the horizon that it's actually going to be possible.”

— Angela Y. Davis

"I feel that if we don't take seriously the ways in which racism is embedded in structures of institutions, if we assume that there must be an identifiable racist who is the perpetrator, then we won't ever succeed in eradicating racism."

— Angela Y. Davis

"In a racist society it is not enough to be non-racist, we must be anti-racist."

- Angela Y. Davis

"In many ways you can say that the prison serves as an institution that consolidates the state's inability and refusal to address the most pressing social problems of this era."

— Angela Y. Davis
